Public questions on Catholic spirituality, moral & spiritual problems

Q. If I cannot recall if I mentioned a particular sin the last time I went to confession but recall it now, should I mention it in my next confession, or was it absolved already? A. Answer by a Catholic Apologist: It was absolved already. If it is a venial sin, you do not need to confess it. If it was a mortal sin, it was absolved, provided you at least implicitly intended to mention it if you had remembered it. What this means is that you confessed all known sins and would have confessed whatever others you committed had you recalled them. So if you now recall a mortal sin, mention it the next time you go to confession.

Continuation (p.3) of Mary's Assumption in the Eastern Tradition

(cont. from page 2) theologian who specializes in the area of the Dormition traditions, some of the common threads running through the Palm narratives are as follows: 1) An angel meets Mary on the Mount of Olives and announces to her that her time of death has come and brings to her a palm branch from the Tree of Life in paradise; 2) Mary goes back to her home in Jerusalem and informs her friends and family of the message of the angel, and the apostles, who were engaged in their respective missions all over the earth, re-gather miraculously in Jerusalem; 3) Peter, who is treated as the head of the apostles, delivers a homily to those who have come the night before to pray as Mary prepares for her death; 4) When the moment arrives, the crowds are put to sleep, all except the apostles and three virgins, who see Jesus and a host of angels appear; 5) Jesus receives the immaculate soul of Mary, appearing in the form of an Infant in white swaddling clothes, and gives it to Michael the Archangel; 6) The apostles carry Mary's body on a funeral bier to a tomb beside the Garden of Gethsemane; 7) Jephonias, one of the Jewish leaders, attempts to upend the funeral bier but as he does so his hands are severed by an angel, then later restored by his conversion and prayers to Mary; 8) After laying her body in the tomb, the apostles wait for Christ there for several days until he returns, resurrects Mary and takes her body, along with the apostles, to paradise; 9) The apostles, after being shown heaven and hell, then return to earth with Mary remaining, body and soul, in heaven. One of the later narratives also mentions a situation where Thomas arrives late. By the time he reaches the city and meets with the other apostles, Mary has been buried and he requests to see her body in the sealed tomb. When the tomb is opened, however, Mary's body is not to be found, but rather the relics of her funeral robe and her belt. The finding of the relics is also part of the Dormition traditions of Constantinople and Ephesus.

13th Sunday After Pentecost

Why God sent His Only-Begotten Son (Matthew 21: 33-42)

One may ask If everything else had failed, why did God send His Son? In the light of today's Gospel, here are some things to help us understand why God sent his Son. 1-GOD SENT HIS SON TO REVEAL HIS OWN HEART-- Through the years people had heard about God, they had felt his judgments. But really did not know his great heart or how much he really loved them. So when Jesus came, God said "This is my beloved Son, hear ye him" In saying this he was telling them feel his warmth, see his compassion, watch how he lives and loves and then you will see me. My Son and Me are one. Many things show the picture of God, but to love God and know God's love, one has to look into the face of Jesus Christ. 2-GOD SENT HIS SON TO TEACH A BETTER WAY OF LIVING — The old rule was " An eye for an eye." But when Jesus came He said, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you". 3-GOD SENT HIS SON TO BE A PICTURE OF HIS POWER — When He saw a blind man he gave him his sight. To a cripple he gave His walk, to a leper He gave cleansing, He brought the dead to life, gave comfort and hope to broken hearts, He stilled the storms and fed the hungry. All this He did to show how God could touch people and help them out of their sin. 4-GOD SENT HIS SON TO BECOME A BLOOD SACRIFICE — Christ is the only and final sacrifice for sin. Rivers of animal blood could never do what Jesus done. No more going once a year, no more animals, and no more innocent life dying for my sin. Jesus did it once for all. The Blood of Jesus Christ cleanses us from all sin. 5-GOD SENT HIS SON TO BE A NEW AND LIVING WAY — The only way to heaven is through Jesus. He is the ladder from earth to heaven, from man's sin to God's heart. People think they will stand in front of God and they can talk to Him and he will just let them pass through. Jesus said you must be born again (baptized and reform one's life to the Gospel), that is the way God designed it He settled it with the blood of Christ. 6-GOD WILL SEND HIS SON AGAIN SOME DAY — In the New Testament alone, God said 318 times that Jesus would come again. One day the heavens will roll back and Jesus will step out on the cloud and call the dead in Christ first, then we which are alive and remain will be changed and go up to meet Him in the air to forever be with the Lord. No matter what Oprah, or Donahue says. John 1:12 wrote, "As many as received Him, to them he gave power to become the sons of God".

FROM A CATHOLIC PERSPECTIVE:

Mary's Assumption in the Eastern Tradition

The following article was written by a Catholic Answer writer, Deacon Daniel G. Dozer and taken from Catholic Answers Webpage. This abridges article briefly teaches us the importance of understanding the Dormition Feast. Space does not permit the entire article.

... We celebrate this holy end of Mary's life today with the Solemnity of the Assumption, in the East called the Dormition. Catholics of the Latin tradition often assume that Mary's final end has been sufficiently addressed by the dogma of the Assumption, that is, her translation, body and soul, into heaven as defined by Pius XII in 1950.... The Byzantine tradition, however, as part of the universal and fully Catholic patrimony of the Church, is not silent on this topic. It guards a rich treasury of teaching, iconography, and liturgy concerning the end of Mary's life....These three events—her death, her resurrection, and her assumption into heaven—complete the mosaic of the holy end of Mary's life. According to Stephen Shoemaker, a contemporary ... (cont. under Northside Announcements)

Martyr Agathonicus of Nicomedia & His Companions who suffered under Emperor Maximian — August 22

The Martyrs Agathonicus, Zoticus, Theoprepus, Acindynus, Severian, Zeno and others accepted death for Christ during the reign of the emperor Maximian (284-305). The Martyr Agathonicus was descended from the illustrious lineage of the Hypasians, and he lived at Nicomedia. Well versed in Holy Scripture, he converted many pagans to Christ, including the most eminent member of the Senate (its “princeps” or leader). Comitus Eutolmius was sent to the Pontine (lower Black Sea) region, where he crucified the followers of the Christian Zoticus, who had refused to offer sacrifice to idols. He took Zoticus with him. In Nicomedia, Eutolmius arrested the Martyr Agathonicus (together with the princeps), and also Theoprepus, Acindynus and Severian. After tortures, Eutolmius ordered that the martyrs be taken to Thrace for trial by the emperor. But along the way, in the vicinity of Potama, the Martyrs Zoticus, Theoprepus and Acindynus were unable to proceed further behind the chariot of the governor because of wounds received during torture. Therefore, they were put to death. The Martyr Severian was put to death at Chalcedon, and the Martyr Agathonicus together with others was beheaded with the sword by order of the emperor, in Selymbria. The relics of the Martyr Agathonicus were in a church named for him at Constantinople, and were seen in the year 1200 by the Russian pilgrim Anthony. And in the fourteenth century Philotheus, the archbishop of Selymbria, devoted an encomium to the Martyr Agathonicus.

HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION THIS PAST WEEK — Last Wednesday, Aug. 15 was THE FEAST OF THE DORMITION OF THE MOTHER OF GOD and a Holy Day of Obligation.
