THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH

When the Most High descended and confused tongues, He scattered the people; but when He distributed the tongues of fire, He called all men to unity. Therefore, with one voice, let us glorify the Most Holy Spirit (Matins of Pentecost Sunday).

Public questions on Catholic spirituality, moral & spiritual problems

Q. What is the difference between gossip and venting to a confidant about things people have done? A. Answer by Catholic Answers: The Catechism explains when talking about when Gossip becomes sinful: Respect for the reputation of persons forbids every attitude and word likely to cause them unjust injury. He becomes guilty: – of rash judgment who, even tacitly, assumes as true, without sufficient foundation, the moral fault of a neighbor; – of detraction who, without objectively valid reason, discloses another's faults and failings to persons who did not know them; – of calumny who, by remarks contrary to the truth, harms the reputation of others and gives occasion for false judgments concerning them (2477). Venting in the sense of just getting something "off our chest" does not include any of the things listed above. So if we were to determine some key differences between venting and gossip I would say the former: Has no intention of what is said being spread to anyone else; Takes no joy in exposing someone else's fault(s); Does not carelessly relate false or incomplete information; Seeks no harm to another's reputation; Seeks no harm to another and no exaltation of self; Takes place at an appropriate time and place with someone who can reasonably be trusted.

PLUMBER CAMERA REVEALS PROBLEMS WITH CHURCH DRAINAGE SYSTEM— Matt Mertz Plumbing completed extensive work with the Convent last week. Now they have started with the Church drainage system investigating why the church basement continues to be flooded. Part of the problem is where the church line ties into the convent line underground. More terra cotta piping is in bad shape with roots going inside the pipe. This is not going to be a quick fix. It was discovered that both sewage and rain water pipes were originally placed into the ground prior to the rectory being built. Access to the lines cannot be determined since the drainage trap is buried several feet below an inside bedroom adjacent to the rectory kitchen. We are still awaiting word from MM Plumbing as to the best solution and how to proceed. It is going to be an expensive fix which insurance will probably not cover.

LAST WEEK'S PARISH ADVISORY/FINANCIAL COUNCIL MEETING AGENDA —

Following last Sunday's Divine Liturgy our meeting commenced in the Church. George Hudanick, Jr. was appointed to the vacancy position. The points covered were: (1) 2019 Financial report reviewed of income and expenditures. Upon review and advisement, this report will be made to donating parishioners. If you have not received a copy, please call the church office; (2) Social Center leasing details to the Tamburitizans were discussed. It is an excellent lease that had been litigated by juris counsel. Holy Ghost Church is now freed from the added burden of and labor and payments accrued from its usage. The Tamburitizas will continue to lease the Social Center at $2,000.00 per month with the option to purchase during or following 3 three-year increments. They are permitting our parishioners to use the parking facilities; (3) We be having a bake sale again this year for Thanksgiving. GCU Northwest Pittsburgh Lodge will match the funds. Living Beyond the Golden Rule— LK 6:31-36

We see in the gospel today that Jesus teaches us the golden rule, which bids us to do to others, as

CROSS REFERENCES

Do to others as you would have them do to you. Luke 6:31

Be indebted to no one, except to one another in love, for he who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the Law. Romans 13:8

Love does no wrong to its neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the Law. Romans 13:10

The entire Law is fulfilled in a single decree: "Love your neighbor as yourself." Galatians 5:14

If you really keep the royal law stated in Scripture, "Love your neighbor as yourself," you are doing well. James 2:8

we would have them do to us. In reflecting upon the golden rule, we perceive that the important fact of Christian conduct is that it consists not in refraining from bad things, but in doing good things toward our neighbor. Jesus stresses that we are to do good toward our neighbor even he does not love us in return. No matter what a person does to you, (plots against you or slanders you), you are still called to be kind and good to him or her. Even though we may never get a “thank you.” The Lord God, Who watches from on high, will give rewards to all who follow his golden rule. For Jesus says: “Your reward will be great and you will be the sons of the Most High, because he is kind both to the thankless and to the wicked.” The second fact is that the Christian way of life is based on accomplishing extra deeds. There are too many people who desire to be just as good as their neighbors. Jesus challenges us that we must strive to be better than the ordinary person. It is not our neighbor with whom we must compare ourselves; it is God with Whom we must compare ourselves. The reason why we compare ourselves to God is that we are created in the image and likeness of God. By doing extra good deeds toward the church and toward our neighbor, we come closer to God. There are indeed many extra deeds that we can do. We can pray more and attend the Divine Liturgy more often. We could also visit the sick in our hospitals and nursing homes. So let us today follow Jesus Christ by doing the “extra.”

October Is Respect Life Month

The Respect Life Program, sponsored by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, started in 1972 and begins anew each October—the month set aside by the U.S. bishops as “Respect Life Month.” The program promotes respect for human life in light of our intrinsic dignity as having been created in God's image and likeness and likeness. This year's theme, “Livjje the Gospel of Life,” is particularly suited for our times. While attacks against human life seem to grow ever more numerous and callous, we know that Christ has conquered sin and death. Through our Christian hope in the Resurrection, we are given the grace to persevere in faith. and called to an eternal destiny with him. (U.S.C.C.B. org website)

Saints of the Day

The Martyrs Eulampius & Eulampia

October 10

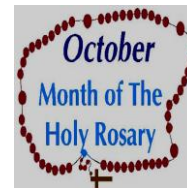

Saints Eulampius and Eulampia were brother and sister. They lived at the beginning of the fourth century in the city of Nicomedia. Eulampius became upset after reading the decree of the emperor Maximian (284-305) sentencing all Christians to execution. Eulampius was horrified that the emperor was taking up arms against his own subjects rather than fighting the enemies of his country. The youth was brought to trial and commanded to renounce the Christian Faith. When he refused, they first raked him with iron hooks, and then placed him upon a red-hot bed of coals. All of a sudden the sufferer expressed a wish to visit the pagan temple. The judges were delighted, supposing that they had turned him from Christianity. In the pagan temple of Mars the saint approached the idol and cried out, "In the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ I command you to fall to the floor and crumble into dust!" The idol immediately crashed down to the floor and was destroyed. The people exclaimed, "The Supreme God is the Christian God, Who is great and mighty!" St Eulampius was again taken away for torture. This time his sister, Eulampia, appeared before the judges and declared that she also was a Christian. Eulampius told her, "Sister, do not fear those who kill the body but are unable to kill the soul" (Mt.10:28). The martyrs were tortured and thrown into a red-hot furnace, but the Lord protected them from the fire. Finally, they beheaded Eulampius, but Eulampia died from her torments before she could be beheaded. Holy Martyrs Eulampius and Eulampia, pray for us before God's Throne!
