Public questions on Catholic spirituality, moral & spiritual problems

Q. Why is masturbation prohibited? God only prohibits us from what is not good for us, but it is proven to be essential for health. A. Answer by a Catholic Apologist: God designed sexual expression to unite a man and woman in an intimately loving embrace that is total, faithful, free and fruitful—and thus in marriage. Indeed, the marital act is the beautiful... Consequently, masturbation is a sin against the Sixth Commandment, because it violates the God-inscribed unbreakable bond between the love-giving and life-giving aspects of the marital act (see CCC 2366-70). Instead of the intimate and mutual self-giving that is the hallmark of the marital act, masturbation—and whether within marriage or outside of marriage—is an act in which one turns selfishly inward. Indeed, masturbation is a dualistic, self-indulgent activity that uses the body as a means of personal gratification, instead of integrating one's gift of sexuality—one's powers of love and life—into a sincere self-gift to another. Masturbation attempts to dualistically divorce the physical behavior we choose to engage in from shaping our self-identity, as if the former had nothing to do with the latter. Masturbation fails to see that our bodies are not something we have but are essential to who we are and how we express ourselves as human persons, as body-soul composites (CCC 364-65).... the Church has always definitively taught—and will always teach—that masturbation (CCC 2352) is "an intrinsically and gravely disordered action." And when committed with full knowledge and complete consent (CCC 1859), it is a mortal sin (see CCC 1854-64). So, masturbation is certainly not essential for our health...In addition, God gives us his grace, particularly in the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Eucharist, to overcome our sinful sexual desires...including nocturnal emissions for men.

YOUTH GROUP CONTINUES CANDY RAISING PROJECT — Every two years our Youth Group attends the Metropolitan Byzantine Rally. It is a wonderful chance for our youth to meet other Byzantine Catholics from across the country. In 2021 we are hoping to send 7 teens and 2 chaperones to Mt. St. Mary's University in Maryland. In order to defray the cost, the Holy Ghost Youth Group continues a virtual fundraiser from Sarris Candies. The fundraiser is in effect now and continues until March 29. This is a contactless fundraiser and all purchases will be shipped directly to the buyer with a $5 packaging charge per order.. You can purchase anything from the company and we will receive 25% of the sale. Just follow these steps and candy will be on the way:

NEED FOR ADDITIONAL PUSSY WILLOWS FOR PALM SUNDAY — We are going to need Pussy Willows for our Palm (Flowery) Celebration on the weekend of March 27-28. Hopefully they will be ready to be harvested. We could always use additional branches. If you can help us out, please phone the MR Church Office.

CLOCKS "SPRING-AHEAD" NEXT SUNDAY — Many countries observe DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME, and many do not. Many countries use DST to make better use of the daylight in the evenings. Many people believe that DST could be linked to fewer road accidents and injuries. The extra hour of daylight in the evening is said to give children more social time and can boost the tourism industry because it increases the amount of outdoor activities. DST is also used to save energy and reduce artificial light needed during the evening hours — clocks are set one hour ahead during the spring, and one hour back to standard time in the autumn. The United States, Canada and some other countries extended DST in 2007. The start date is the second Sunday in March (previously the first Sunday in April) through to the first Sunday in November (previously the last Sunday in October).

EXPRESSING OUR PIETY & DEVOTION

Third Sunday of THE GREAT FAST

Cross-Veneration Sunday: We Bow to Your Cross, O Master" (Mark 8: 34 – 9:1)

On the Third Sunday of The Great Fast, the Byzantine Catholic Church commemorates

the Precious and Life-Giving Cross of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Services include a special veneration of the Cross, which prepares the faithful for the commemoration of the Crucifixion during Holy Week. The commemoration and ceremonies of the Third Sunday of Lent are closely parallel to the feasts of the Veneration of the Cross (September 14). Not only does the Sunday of the Holy Cross prepare us for commemoration of the Crucifixion, but it also reminds us that the whole of Lent is a period when we are crucified with Christ. As we have "crucified the flesh with its passions and desires" (Galatians 5:24), and will have mortified ourselves during these forty days of the Fast, the precious and life-giving Cross is now placed before us to refresh our souls and encourage us who may be filled with a sense of bitterness, resentment, and depression. The Cross reminds us of the Passion of our Lord, and by presenting to us His example, it encourages us to follow Him in struggle and sacrifice, being refreshed, assured, and comforted. In other words, we must experience what the Lord experienced during His Passion - being humiliated in a shameful manner. The Cross teaches us that through pain and suffering we shall see the fulfillment of our hopes: the heavenly inheritance and eternal glory. The Cross is a sign of the Triune God's unconditional love for us. We express our piety and devotion to the Precious Cross on the tetrapod by making two profound bows with sign of the Cross over ourselves saying each time silently "O God be merciful to me a sinner," venerate the Cross, and then making one more profound bow saying again, "O God be merciful to me a sinner."

Explanation of Taking Up the Cross Daily

What does this mean, "take up a cross"? It means you will bear with whatever is troublesome, and in this very act you will be following Christ. When you begin to follow Christ according to His teaching and precepts, you will find many people contradicting you and standing in your way, many who will not only deride you but even persecute you. Moreover, this is true, not only of pagans who are outside the church, but also of those who seem to be in it visibly.... Although they glory in merely the title of Christian, they continually persecute faithful Christians. Such belong to the members of the church in the same way that bad blood is in the body. Therefore, if you wish to follow Christ, do not delay in carrying His cross; tolerate sinners, but do not yield to them. Do not let the false happiness of the wicked corrupt you. You do well to despise all things for the sake of Christ, in order that you may be fit for his companionship. St. Caesarius of Arles sermons 159.5.

Saints of the Week

The 40 Holy Martyrs of Sebaste — March 9

According to St. Basil of Caesarea (370-379 ad) in a homily stated that forty soldiers who had openly confessed themselves Christians were condemned by the prefect to be exposed naked upon a frozen pond near Sebaste (present-day Sivas in Turkey), on a bitterly cold night, that they might freeze to death in 320 ad. Among the confessors, one yielded and, leaving his companions, sought the warm baths near the lake which had been prepared for any who might prove inconstant. One of the guards set to keep watch over the martyrs beheld at this moment a supernatural brilliancy overshadowing them and at once proclaimed himself a Christian, threw off his garments, and joined the remaining thirty-nine. Thus the number of forty remained complete. At daybreak, the stiffened bodies of the confessors, which still showed signs of life, were burned and the ashes cast into a river. Christians, however, collected the precious remains, and the relics were distributed throughout many cities; in this way, veneration of the Forty Martyrs became widespread, and numerous churches were erected in their honor. The liturgical book of the Eastern Church lists the names of the Forty Martyrs as follows: Hesychius, Meliton, Heraclius, Smaragdus, Domnus, Eunoicus, Valens, Vivianus, Claudius, Priscus, Theodulus, Euthychius, John, Xantheas, Helianus, Sisinius, Cyron, Angius, Aetius, Flavius, Acacius, Ecditius, Lysimachus, Alexander, Elias, Candidus, Theophilus, Dometian, Gaius, Gorgonius, Eutyches, Athanasius, Cyril, Sacerdon, Nicholas, Valaerius, Philoctimon, Severian, Chudion, and Aglaius.

CONTINUING TO REMEMBER LOVED ONES AT ALL-SOULS COMMEMORATIONS — St. Cyril of

Jerusalem in believing and teaching us to remember those who have passed into eternity: "Then we make mention also of those who have already fallen asleep: first, the patriarchs, prophets, apostles, and martyrs, that through their prayers and supplications God would receive our petition, next, we make mention also of the holy fathers and bishops who have already fallen asleep, and, to put it simply, of all among us who have already fallen asleep. For We believe that it will be of very great benefit to the souls of those for whom the petition is carried up, while this holy and most solemn sacrifice (of the Divine Liturgy) is laid out (Catechetical Lectures 23:5:9 [A.D. 350]). There are two more times to remember your loved ones in the All-Souls Commemoration. Submit their names on the special envelope in your contribution box. The remaining days are March 13 & May 22. Please make an effort to attend these special days as well.
