Public questions on Catholic spirituality, moral & spiritual problems

Q. I am a Protestant overwhelmed by the guilt of sin. Is it permissible for me to confess my sins to a priest? I think that I would stay more focused on staying closer to the Lord if I were accountable to a mature Christian. A. Catholic Answers Apologist: Catholics do not primarily go to confession to stay focused, though the sacrament can help in this way. We go to confession because we believe that our sins are absolutely forgiven by Christ's absolution given through the ministry of the priest. When Jesus breathed on his apostles and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven and whose sins you shall retain, they are retained" (John 20:22-24), we believe that he literally meant that. If you believe this also, then perhaps you need to be a Catholic. To believe that a Catholic priest has the power to forgive sin when one's own minister does not suggests that one is acknowledging some faith in the Catholic Church. Maybe you are closer to becoming one than you think. As it stands, one must hold the teachings of the Catholic Church to partake of its sacraments.

Meditation on today's Gospel

The way back to the Kingdom of God had been restored — Lk. 14:16-24

This familiar parable of the Banquet is proclaimed in the Church each year just two Sundays before the feast of our Lord's Nativity. In it we are reminded of the great care with which God prepared the way of His coming. All of the Law and the Prophets look forward to this moment, the moment when the God/man Jesus Christ comes into the world. The whole world was prepared by them for this great event. As the parable tells us the King – that is God – has prepared a great feast for us and has invited us to come and enter into the joy that He has prepared for us. However, there were some who refused this invitation, considering their own affairs to be more important or more desirable than the feast of the King. Although God had chosen them, they did not choose God. Is this not like our first parents Adam and Eve? They too were chosen by God but they did not choose God and so were cast out of paradise. But our Creator, not willing to abandon His creation, prepared a way that we might return to Him. This preparation covered centuries and millennia of time; it was defined by the law and prophets. The Way that God prepared for us to return to Him is in fact the Person of Jesus Christ, God Himself taking human flesh and dwelling among us. Just as through Adam all men fell into sin and corruption and death, now through Jesus Christ all men were invited to rise out of that condemnation and live again according to the love and grace of God. The Way back to the Kingdom of God had been restored. We had again been chosen by God. But some refused, instead choosing to follow their own desires. If we have refused may we now return to the Lord with our whole heart!

Join Us For A Special 2025 Jubilee Blessing Pilgrimage

On Sunday, December 21, 2025 @ 1:00 p.m., we will depart together by our vehicles on a Pilgrimage to the Cathedral in Munhall. This has been a designated place to receive a Jubilee Indulgence by the late Pope Francis. Details later. We will then stop for a mid-day lunch at the Waterfront. If interested, please sign. And join us and receive this special blessing (Indulgence) prior to the Nativity of Our Lord.

Jubilee Year Indulgences: Conditions for obtaining this gift (Part II)

The Jubilee is a reminder of God's mercy and the call to live out the gospel more fully. This is Catholic Answers Jubilee Year quick guide on how to obtain this plenary indulgence during the Jubilee Year by fulfilling specific spiritual acts. These are: (1) Making a pilgrimage to a designated site; (2) Participating in Confession; (3) Receiving the Eucharist; (4) Praying for the pope's intentions, and (5) Being detached from all sin, even venial sin. Attachment to sin is when we do not detest a sin. We avoid the sin because we know it to be wrong or because we want to avoid punishment for the sin but we still have an attraction or desire of the sin (Matt. 26:41). In the secular world it is akin to wanting to do something but only avoiding it because it is against the law or has a severe penalty. As disciples of Christ are called not to just avoid sin but also to genuinely love what is good and pleasing to God and to detest what is evil and sinful. This is not easy due to Original Sin but with grace it is possible.

Saints of the Week — December 18

The Holy Martyr Sebastian and His Companions

The Holy Martyr Sebastian was born in the city of Narbonne in Gaul (modern France), and he received his education at Mediolanum (now Milan). He occupied the position of head of the imperial guards. St Sebastian was respected for his authority, and was loved by the soldiers and those at court. He was a brave man filled with wisdom, his word was honest, his judgment just, insightful in advice, faithful in his service and in everything entrusted to him. He was a secret Christian, not out of fear, but so that he could provide help to the brethren in a time of persecution. The noble Christian Deacon-Brothers Marcellinus and Mark had been locked up in prison, and at first they firmly confessed the true Faith. But under the influence of the tearful entreaties of their pagan parents (Tranquillinus and Marcia), and also their own wives and children, they began to waver in their intent to suffer for Christ. St Sebastian went to the imperial treasurer, at whose house Marcellinus and Mark were held in confinement, and addressed the brothers who were on the verge of yielding to the entreaties of their family. Enemies reported him to Diocletian who reproached Sebastian for his supposed betrayal, and he commanded him to be led to a field and there to be bound to a stake so that archers would shoot arrows at him. "And the archers shot at him till he was as full of arrows" leaving him there for dead. Miraculously, the arrows did not kill him. The widow of Castulus, Irene of Rome, went to retrieve his body to bury it, and she discovered he was still alive. She brought him back to her house and nursed him back to health. The other residents of the house doubted he was a Christian. One of those was a girl who was blind. Sebastian asked her "Do you wish to be with God?", and made the sign of the Cross on her head. "Yes", she replied, and immediately regained her sight. Sebastian later stood on a step and harangued Diocletian as he passed by; the emperor had Sebastian beaten to death, and his body was thrown into a privy. But in an apparition, Sebastian told a Christian widow where they might find his body undefiled and bury it "at the catacombs by the apostles. Because of this, Sebastian is sometimes known as the saint who was martyred twice.

Together as a parish, let us collectively practice simple abstinence (no meat) or an equivalent penance on Wednesdays (recommended) and Fridays (required) for the intention for the return of our beloved back to Church. The color PURPLE is worn as a sign of ROYALTY of the One to be born in Bethlehem.

CHRISTMAS VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION DINNER — The Church cannot operate very well if it weren't for volunteers! To show appreciation for all who volunteered in some aspect of parish life throughout 2024, a Parish Appreciation Dinner at the Golden Corral, Robinson Township will be on Tuesday, December 30, 2025 @ 6:00 p.m. This includes all Altar Servers, Ushers, Cantors, Readers, Office Personnel, Collection Counters, Church & Rectory Cleaners and Decorators, Altar Cover changers, Catechists, Radio Ministry, etc. This Dinner also includes all Pirohi Workers who will not be able to attend their luncheon buffet.
